

Call for Papers

Quest: Issues in Contemporary Jewish History

Miscellaneous, issue 22/2 (2022)

The editors of the online open access journal Quest. Issues in Contemporary Jewish History, published by Fondazione Centro di Documentazione Ebraica Contemporanea, invite scholars to submit articles on any aspect of Jewish history from the 18th century to the present day.

The Journal aims at gathering articles for a miscellaneous issue to be published in December 2022. To be considered for inclusion in that issue, you should send your articles by 30 April 2022.

Please send your article including its full title along with your abstract (300 words) to mail@quest-cdecjournal.it. Please, include the full name of the Author(s), with current affiliation and email details, plus a short biographical note; Author(s)'s statement confirming the agreement to the submission and that the article was not published before and is not currently being considered for publication by any other journal. You will be notified whether the article has been accepted for the peer review process, by 15 May 2022.

Each text submitted should be a doc. or .rtf document, written in American English, doubled-space in 12-point Times New Roman; fully justified. Articles should be between 30,000 and 60,000 characters (footnotes and spaces included). For full information about the editorial guidelines see <https://www.quest-cdecjournal.it/about-this-journal/>

Quest is an English-language, full-text, open access, peer-reviewed e-journal published by the Fondazione Centro di Documentazione Ebraica Contemporanea (CDEC). It is classified as a "Fascia A" (top-tier) journal by the Italian National Agency for the Evaluation of Universities and Research Institutes (ANVUR), and indexed widely.